

Incredible Catalan Life Size Stone Female Torso With Provenance

An incredible life size stone female torso from the town of Maçanet de Cabrenys in the foothills of the Catalan Pyrenees.
The statue originally came from the famous hotel/restaurant “Els Caçadors” (The Hunters) that hosted many famous guests including Salvador Dali (pictured standing next to the statue in the restaurant guest book).
The statue is beautifully patinated and has been mounted on an Iron base encased by an off white wooden plinth.
