

Studio 125

HUGE early 19th C. Japanese Terracotta Vessel

A huge and rare thick terracotta vessel.

Originally used for the storage of either alcohol, soy, or water by a wealthy family (clan marking engraved on front).

Due to the vessel's utilitarian past, it has developed a rich patina over 200+ years of regular use.

Origin	Japan
Period	Early 19th Century
Dimensions (cm)	H182 x W90 x D3

£3,950.00 each